

GENDER PAY GAP REPORT

Under the Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties and Public Authorities) Regulations 2017, and as an employer with over 250 employees, Landau Forte Charitable Trust is required to measure and report on the gender pay gap in the organisation. The Trust is a public sector body and has a data capture date of 31 March in each year.

Under the Regulations there is a requirement to report on the following 6 measures:

- The difference in the mean pay of full pay men and women expressed as a percentage
- The difference in median pay of full pay men and women expressed as a percentage
- The difference in mean bonus pay of full pay men and women expressed as a percentage
- The difference in median bonus pay of men and women expressed as a percentage
- The proportion of men and women who received bonus pay and
- The proportion of full pay men and women in each of four quartile bands

In relation to the other areas the data is based on 559 staff paid on the data capture date: 165 male and 394 female.

Mean Gender Pay Gap

Male	165	£15.98
Female	394	£12.32

The mean gender pay gap is therefore 23%. Female staff on average across the whole Trust earn less than their counterparts.

Median Gender Pay Gap

Male	165	£14.73
Female	394	£9.54

The median gender pay gap is 35%

Mean Bonus payments

Male	5	3%	£3,800
Female	4	1%	£2,000

The mean bonus payment gap is 47%

Median Bonus payments

Male	5	3%	£2,000
Female	4	1%	£2,000

There is no median difference in bonus payments

Quartile Pay Band Gender Information

Quartile	Male No	Male %	Female No	Female %	Total No
Lower Quartile	21	15.1%	118	84.9%	139
Lower Middle Quartile	28	20%	112	80%	140
Upper Middle Quartile	55	39.3%	85	60.7%	140
Upper Quartile	62	44.3%	78	55.7%	140

This shows that there is a high proportion of females in all quartiles but significantly in the Lower and Lower Middle quartiles.

Narrative for Landau Forte Charitable Trust

Landau Forte Charitable Trust is committed to the promotion of equality of opportunity and choice for employees and supports the fair treatment of all staff irrespective of gender through our transparent recruitment process, pay policy and professional development.

The overall published UK gender pay gap is 18.1%. The Trust's is 23% representing that females earn less than their male counterparts. However, it is recognised in education that:

- More women apply to work in the sector due to working patterns ie part time work and term time contracts
- Part time work can be less highly paid
- Many female returner to employment apply to the public sector

The data does not suggest many of these factors are an issue, except potentially the part time workers who are predominately female within the Trust.

The majority of staff are in the lower pay quartiles and the workforce is predominantly female therefore the gap between average female hourly rate of pay and the average male hourly rate of pay is significantly affected.

This initial report and its data provide a baseline for the Trust to compare to in future years, both internally and externally to identify any trends.
